

How are the school's resources allocated and matched to the children's needs?

- We ensure that all children with SEND have their needs met to the best of the school's ability, within the funds available.
- The budget is allocated on a needs basis. The students who have the most complex needs are given the most support.

