

How is the learning environment monitored?

All staff and Governors are responsible for ensuring the safety of all children including children with SEND. Staff and Governors have worked hard to improve the environment for all children including disabled children to ensure that the facilities and services offered by the school meet the needs of all children attending. Work recently carried out has enabled staff to offer all children a curriculum tailored to their needs.

