Headteacher's Introduction

Welcome to the very last newsletter of the term. This term has been filled with successes for Thomas Johnson Lower School. The learning buzz around the school is really quite something at the moment. On our open session earlier this week, one parent commented that "the school feels magical to walk around". Our school is filled with enthusiastic, curious and well-behaved children who are always eager to learn. I can walk from one end of the school to the other and I know I will see children engaged in their learning being supported and nurtured by the talented and caring staff we have in our school.

This term has also been one of personal significance for me. I have reached the end of my first term as Headteacher of TJLS. Someone asked me 'Is the job what you expected?' Well, I didn't really know what to expect. Although I have been a Headteacher of another school before - all schools are different and present their own unique challenges. What I do feel confident of, is that coming to TJLS was meant to be.

Another question I have been asked is 'Why do you even want to be a Headteacher?' That one is easy - I want to motivate and inspire children and adults to become the most brilliant version of themselves.

I have a vision for this school that takes us on a journey far into the future. The staff in the school are some of the most brilliant and inspiring individuals I have met - and every day there is someone in school who does or says something that makes me feel proud, inspired or happy. If you have the ability to make someone else feel that way then you are flourishing in life and consistently being the most brilliant version of yourself.

This has also transmitted to our children. Every single day this term I have seen children showing our SHINE values and embedding the core habits we promote in school. The children's attitude to learning and the way they are developing their growth mindset reminds me each and every day that TJLS is a special place.

Thank you to the staff for starting this journey with me and embracing everything I am trying to do. Thank you to the children for being fantastic, surprising and inspirational. And finally, thank you to so many of you for showing your support to me, the staff, your children and everything about your school community.

Have a safe, restful and very merry Christmas - and a happy new year. I look forward to seeing you all on Wednesday 4th January 2023 when the school reopens.

Best wishes,

Simon Bolger

Goodbye

Today, we say goodbye to Miss Tyrrell. She is leaving us for 2023 to teach abroad for a year. I have told the school she is going to that the children are very lucky to have her because she is a fantastic teacher, wonderful role model and such a positive person.

Miss Tyrrell has been a teacher at TJLS since 2019 - and in that time she has supported, cared and inspired a number of our children.

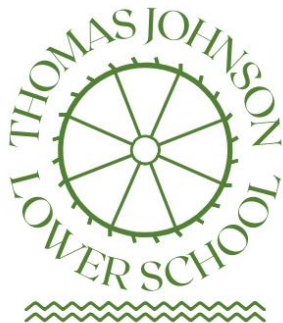

Although we will miss her - she is intending to return to TJLS in 2024 after her overseas adventure.

I'd like to thank her for all her efforts at the school - and to wish her the best of luck and Bon Voyage...!

Snow!

Thank you for your cooperation at the start of this week. We will always endeavour to keep the school open unless the site is too dangerous to use or staff cannot get to school because of unsafe driving conditions.

In the event that we do have to shut the school, we will notify you in the following ways:

- Class Dojo
- School website
- School Facebook
- Central Bedfordshire: SOS | School Closure List (you can also register for updates on this page)

A special thank you to the local business, Chris Mead Roofing, for donating a large bag of rock salt to the school so we could make the front paths and driveways safe for everyone.

Even my own parents turned up with shovels and rock salt to help me clear the snow and ice - so thanks Mum and Dad!

Attendance awards

Well done to the following 12 children who have achieved 100% attendance this term - this means they have had zero authorised or unauthorised absences and have never been late. They have all been awarded their 100% Attendance Certificate this morning.
